

MODERN DAY SLAVERY ACT 2015 POLICY STATEMENT

EnerQuip Ltd recognises that slavery and human trafficking remains a hidden blight on our global society. The aim of the company is to identify our responsibility by alerting staff to the risks, however small, in our business and in the wider supply chain. This policy applies to all those employed by EnerQuip Limited. Staff are expected and encouraged to report concerns to management, where they are expected to act upon them.

Company activities are varied through multiple disciplined areas such as: Fabrication, Assembly and Field Service.

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern-day slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our Anti-Slavery Policy Statement reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and control to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

This policy takes into account, and supports, the policies, procedures and requirements documented in our Integrated Management System, compliant with the requirements for ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015 and OHSAS 18001:2007. The implementation and operation of this management system underlines our commitment to this policy statement. This policy is regularly reviewed by the Directors to ensure its continuing suitability and relevance to the company activities.

The company will achieve these aims by our initiative to identify and mitigate risk in the following ways (But not limited to):-

- More stringent vetting and investigation of our supply chain (contractors, sub-contractors, policies, contracts etc.).
- Continually audit & review our practices for checking all employees are paid at least the minimum wage and have the right to work;
- We encourage the reporting of concerns and the protection of whistle blowers.
- The company will not knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery or human trafficking.
- We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. We expect all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values.

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide relevant information to members of staff. All directors have been briefed on the subject.

We use the following key performance indicators (KPIs) to measure how effective we have been to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in any part of our business or supply chains:

- Completion of Internal audits.
- Level of communication and personal contact with next link in the supply chain and their understanding of, and compliance with, our expectations. This is verified during supplier audits and vendor approval.

This policy is in accordance with Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our company's slavery and human trafficking statement.

For transparency the company will publish the Modern Day Slavery & Trafficking Act 2015 Policy statement on its website for the public, consumers, employees, NGOs or investors to view.
